Leave and Attendance Policy

1. Purpose

This sample policy explains a consistent process for requesting leave and reporting absences.

2. Scope

It applies to employees of Example Technologies Pvt. Ltd., subject to their employment terms and applicable law.

3. Leave Categories

The organization may provide annual/earned leave, casual leave, sick leave, parental leave and other statutory or company-approved leave. Eligibility, accrual and limits should be defined in the employee's applicable employment terms and local law.

4. Request Process

Employees should submit planned leave through the designated HR system or form, provide the dates and leave category, and obtain manager approval before making non-emergency arrangements.

5. Unplanned Absence

If illness or an emergency prevents attendance, employees should notify their manager as early as reasonably possible and follow any documentation requirements communicated by HR.

6. Approval and Handover

Managers consider team coverage, business needs and fairness when reviewing requests. Employees should document urgent tasks and arrange a handover where appropriate.

7. Attendance Records

Employees must ensure attendance and leave records are accurate. Any discrepancy should be raised with HR promptly.

8. Policy Administration

HR is responsible for maintaining the official policy and communicating changes. This sample contains no fixed statutory entitlements; verify local requirements before use.
